"INTERNATIONAL
UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM"

COURSE OVERVIEW

The Faculty of Law Universitas Diponegoro opens an international class for the Bachelor of Law Program-BLP (The International Undergraduate Program-IUP). The IUP is designed as a special class with English as a medium of communication in all campus activities. The IUP class is designed to produce graduates who are globally competitive and provide the widest possible opportunities for prospective national and international students.

The BLP is designed to provide an enhanced program of studies for students of exceptional academic ability. The course enables students to acquire a range of practical transferable skills and knowledge that will qualify them to work in a range of interesting national or international issues relating to among others commercial and business transactions, legal contracts, legal dispute resolutions, election discord, the art of negotiation, social justice, and human rights.

The course also endows students with the proficiency to practice law. With levels of studies ranging from legal practice, legal science, legal theory to legal philosophy; the course does include enhanced research training experience. The course gives students the option to pursue Master and Doctorate degrees awarded primarily on the basis of a research thesis.

Bachelor of Law, Faculty of Law-Universitas Diponegoro is one of the most favorite undergraduate law study programs in Indonesia, as every year, the number of students enrolls increases. The excellence of BLP is supported by competent lecturers, excellent infrastructure facilities, and excellent international programs, such as Visiting Professor, Summer Course, Student Exchange, and others. In addition, most of the graduates are successful in various professional law fields both at the national and international levels.

The objectives of the BLP stated in the curriculum to achieve the "The Seven Stars" Graduate Profile consist of

1. Law policy maker (graduate profile related to hard skills).
2. Law problem solver (graduate profile related to hard skills).
3. Negotiator (graduate profile related to hard skills).
4. Entrepreneur (graduate profile related to soft skills).
